Into Pieces

I will not break into pieces
Even though I've lost all my pride
If I fake it then they win and all is lost
I won't do that again
Why must I do this
Can you help me through this
Everyone has left me
You're the only one who loves me
When I fall will you catch me
I jumped from way too high
It looked easy from up there
Then I looked down
I never felt so small
They cannot tear me to pieces
I went and found all my pride
I was truthful and I see
That nothing's lost
I fought back in the end
I know why I did this Fear cannot disturb this
You never left me
You really love me

Stay

I come through the door
You're not sitting by the table
Anymore
I look away
Can't hold this image in my mind
I wish I was blind
To the hope your face will bring
Why should I
Keep this guilt wrapped up in chains
Pain again
'Cause my heart's not made that way
We can be
Just as close if I am far away
Love you enough
To stay...to stay
Oceans of love
Fill my empty heart
And I wonder
Would it always be the same
Carry me inside
These feelings will not die
You'll be with me forever
Why should I
Keep this guilt wrapped up in chains
Pain again
'Cause my heart's not made that way
We can be
Love you enough
To stay...to stay
Why should I
Keep this guilt wrapped up in chains
Pain again
'Cause my heart's not made that way
We will be
Just as close though I am far away
I loved you enough
To stay...to stay

In the Circle

The wind will drift and spread the flame
A spark will land inside your heart
You will never be the same
As ashes tear your life apart
Tragedy can make us stronger
But cannot be undone
If you wish it, it will happen
Fates aren't sealed for everyone
It flickers in the circle
A dance of life for you
It's safer in the circle
Where visions remain true
So often people judge those
That they do not understand
The innocent are dying
At those judging hateful hands
If only we could show them
We do not wish them harm
Instead we'd like to live life
Inside each other's open arms
We sparkle in the circle
There's fire in our eyes
So much magick in the circle
We're in need of no disguise
Be with me in the circle
You're always welcome here
It's safer in the circle
But do not bring your fear
I'll meet you in the circle
Within your own good time
I'll be here in the circle
Forever with you intertwined

Rebirth

Silver lines have turned to black
No turning back
Fade and shift and leave me blind
I left it all behind
What am I to do
Without you
Guess we'll never know
Into the dark abyss I go
Tell me why
We must stop breathing
Born to die
Life is so
Deceiving
Flames flicker 'round my face
What is this place
Wishing wells and more
A drug that meets the core
What it is you see
Is only me
Faded dreams have gone astray
I can't see the light
Of day
Tell me who
Took my heart away
Kings and fools
I will take it back
Some day
I am free
Here upon this earth
I will be
Witness to
Rebirth

Could It Be?

Open window

Could it be
You're suffering
When you see me
Again and again
I took a drive last night
Went by your place
You weren't home
You can't hide from me
You'll get yours eventually
Could it be
You're suffering
When you see me
Again and again
I know your fears
You'll cry your tears
So helplessly
I know you're in there
You can't avoid me
No matter how you try
If you deny me
You'll suffer indefinitely
Could it be
You're suffering
When you see me
Without you
I won't leave
I will remain
You must believe
It will be
You're suffering
You had your opportunity
It's clear to me
If I can't have you
No one can
No one will

Last October

I remember in the autumn
Under the trees where we promised
To each other love eternal
All we got was lost emotion
Last October Halloween is over
Love lies bleeding underneath the leaves
You were broken and abandoned
Pain is coming in there is nothing
Left for us say goodbye now
It was our last October Halloween is over
Of our last October painful deeds took over
Lost love fleeing up into the trees
Lost among the trees

One night
I opened my window
I wanted to see
What would come in
I fell into sleep
And that's where I found you
You held me so close
And then you were gone
I can see you tonight
What happens
Tomorrow
Will I see you again
Or will I be
All alone
One night
I closed my window
I just couldn't bare
Those dreams again
I fell out of sleep
And I couldn't find you
I woke up
And then you were gone
I can't hold you tonight
My world wrapped
In sorrow
I won't hold you again
So now I'll be
All alone

Storm

Don't you bring me no sunshine today
I need the grey skies and the rain
You never understand my pain
I need the wind to blow it away
Afternoon showers for me
The coldness is all that I see
It numbs my pain so deep
The storm it will rock me to sleep
Rain will wash away my sorrow
Clouds make me see the light
Wind carries me away
To the place I want to be
Alone in the dark sky tonight
I feel the thunder will make it alright
Lightning strikes me down to you
Love of the darkness will help me through
Rain will wash away my sorrow
Clouds make me see the light
Wind carries me away
To the place I want to be

Telltale Shot

Lying in bed with a gun to my head I am slumberless
Memories seep into fathoms of deep disillusionment
Pillow of red futile thoughts never said it's all gone
Take it away this sadness and pain
Heart grown cold through tales of old
Funeral feast bringing violent beasts to the parlor floor
Fortune and fame will not be quite the same it's an open door
Nothing to give, nothing to get make it stop
Did you hear her pull the trigger
Never knowing blood was flowing
Down, down, down, down
Poetry page showing nothingness and rage
Death is my home where I shall roam

Fearful

You were always right there
But you didn't seem to care
When was I ever so bare
You were never aware
Take me home and make it better
Tuck me in to a silent sleep
Make it all just go away
May you practice what you preach
Play dead
Was what you always said
But I hear it in my head
I just want to go to bed
Tell me why I can't be better
Is this always on my mind
You can't be my contraceptive
Disease will find me in time
Yearning for your love
Will it fit me like a glove
Even when push becomes a shove
You will lift me high above
Go away and leave me lying
On the floor from what you've done
When they find me I won't be crying
This disease has surely won

Glō (Momma's song)

When the darkness has captured me
And I'm sinking
I reach for your arms full of love
Without thinking
More than you'll ever know
You are the one I turn to Heavenly light shines above you
You're my angel
Now I see
The light
Here within
My soul
Thank you for Everything
You are the one
I adore
Kindness has always been
Your way
Guide me through good times and bad
Night and day
Near or far wherever we are
I know you'll give me
Courage and strength to go on
Face my enemies
When sleep doesn't comfort me
You are there
Listen to heartache and pain
So aware
What can I do to repay you for
How you save me
I love you everyday
Completely

Shy but painfully aware
She cries no feeling in the air
Left with nothing but a glance
Wish for better circumstance
This is for her
So that she understands
Someone cares
This is for her
To let it all go
Be happy again
Cold lonely thoughts arise
Knows where the demons hide
She wants to be ok
No longer be afraid
This is for her
Fly away with me
Let her be free
This is for her
Be happy again
This is for her
This is for her

Hungry Lucy would like to thank:

Each other for making it through another two years of writing and recording!! Special thanks to David Harrison for adding his special "brown corners" to our music. Thanks to our lovely remixers (bloodWIRE, Trigger10d, Kew, ThouShaltNot, Chandeen, Aiboforcen, Neikka RPM, Claire Voyant, & Dreamside) who added their own tastes to our music and a very special addition to our cd. Large love to DJ Kelly Ashkettle and all the Night-Shift DJ's, Patrick Rodgers, DJ Bob, Steve from Warehouse, Séba Dolimont & Bernard Blanchart and all the Alfa Matrix gang, Fred Banks, DJ Coppertop, Patti & Terry Kok, Scary Lady Sarah, Patrick Coleff, IPM Radio folks, DJ Trauma, Nick Garland, Leonidas Skiadas, Jean-Francois Fecteau, Kirk Nessel, Bryan of 88.7 WRSU in New Brunswick NJ, Troy Flandro, Doctor Avalanche, DJ Automation, Walter (S&SR), Badger, DJ Zo Zo, DJ Antithesis, Jason Pitzl, DJ AEON, Elusis, Isabel Garcia, Tobias Kuechen, Peter - Jan Van Damme, DJ Calhoun and Gintas K. for playing us in clubs and on the radio (if we forgot your name, we're very sorry. Thank you too!!!). Large thanks to our friend Justin Morris for all his help running the merch table and just pitching in during our live shows. Excessive thanks to Peter & Carol Harrison for giving us SOOO much feedback during the making of this album. You must really love us to sit through mix after mix!! Big thanks also go out to our beloved families and friends for inspiring us to continue making the music we love. An ENORMOUS thank you to all our devoted fans who continue to listen to our music...no matter how long it takes us to get it out to you! Thanks to Angela & Marcus Stollings for allowing me to shoot some of the artwork photos at their house, and to Jasmond, Christina, Jason and Maddison for the use of their hands! Last, but never least, thank you Trevor and Chloé for all your quirks and perks! You make life worthwhile!!!
